

U.S. Embassy Bahrain
Demonstration Notice 03 – January 26, 2014

Today, January 26, 2014, beginning as early as 1200, a funeral procession will take place in Diraz. A large gathering of attendees is expected. Although the funeral procession is likely to remain peaceful, there is a strong likelihood for clashes with security forces after the funeral. Anticipate heavy police activity and traffic delays along the Budaiya Highway corridor near Diraz. Sympathetic protests will likely take place in the restricted areas during this time period as well. We recommend that you avoid travel in the restricted areas and Budaiya Highway corridor between Diraz and Sar due to the possibility of traffic congestion and clashes between security forces and protesters. (Yellow Oval)

It is important to note that there have been no direct attacks on U.S. citizens in Bahrain to date. That said, spontaneous and at times violent anti-government demonstrations occur in some neighborhoods, particularly at night and on weekends. These demonstrations have included blockades of major highways with burning debris and establishment of unofficial checkpoints. Participants have thrown rocks and Molotov cocktails and used various other homemade weapons, including isolated use of improvised explosive devices. The Ministry of Interior maintains official checkpoints in some areas and routinely uses tear gas and stun grenades along with birdshot and other crowd control measures against demonstrators. Violent clashes between security forces and demonstrators can make travel in and around Bahrain dangerous without advance warning.

Please see below for a map. Areas shaded in red are off-limits to U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members at all times. U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members are permitted to travel in the areas shaded in yellow during daylight hours only. The Embassy advises all Americans to avoid travel within red zones as a general rule whenever possible.

We remind U.S. citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. U.S. citizens are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations if possible, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations.
